Date: 19.04.2023

Venue: Gour Mahavidyalaya

Organizer: English & Mass Communication Department, Gour Mahavidyalaya and Malda Agami Group.

OBJECTIVES:

To introduce students to the fundamentals of theatre.

To develop students' acting skills through practical exercises.

To explore different theatre genres and styles.

To foster creativity and self-expression among students.

To promote teamwork and collaboration.

WORKSHOP ACTIVITIES:

Warm-up Exercises: The workshop began with a series of physical and vocal warm-up exercises to prepare the participants for the acting activities.

Acting Techniques: The trainers introduced various acting techniques such as Stanislavski's Method, improvisation, and physical theatre.

Script Analysis: Students were given scripts to analyze and discuss, focusing on character development, plot structure, and dialogue.

Scene Work: Participants worked in groups to practice performing scenes from different plays.

Directing Exercises: The workshop also included exercises on directing techniques, such as blocking, pacing, and stage composition.

Scriptwriting Workshop: A separate session was dedicated to scriptwriting, where students learned about the elements of a good script and engaged in writing exercises.

OUTCOME:

The theatre workshop was a resounding success, providing students with a valuable learning experience. The participants actively engaged in the activities and demonstrated significant improvement in their acting, directing, and scriptwriting skills. The workshop fostered a sense of creativity, self-expression, and teamwork among the students.
