

Program Outcome

Disciplinary Specific Course (DSC)/Major (Core)

Four Years Under Graduate Programmes (FYUGP), NEP-2.0

SEMESTER-I

History of India: Pre-history to 6th Century BC

HIS-DC-MJ-101

- Identify and describe early India's geographical features and cultural diversity.
- Analyze the evolution of prehistoric and proto-historic cultures.
- Understand the complexities of the Harappan Civilization and its decline.
- Explain the Aryan problem, political institutions, and social structure of early historic India.

SEMESTER-II

History of India: 6th Century BC-Gupta Period

HIS-DC-MJ-201

- Gain comprehensive understanding of ancient Indian history (600 BCE - 600 CE).
- Analyze primary and secondary sources critically.
- Evaluate the significance of key events, institutions, and cultural developments in ancient India.
- Develop effective communication and writing skills.

SEMESTER-III

History of India: Post-Gupta to 1200 AD

HIS-DC-MJ-301

- Demonstrate a comprehensive understanding of post-Gupta Indian history (600-1200 CE).
- Critically evaluate primary and secondary sources.
- Analyze complex historical processes and institutions.
- Develop effective communication and writing skills.

History of India: 1200 AD to 1526 AD (Political History)

HIS-DC-MJ-302

- Demonstrate a comprehensive understanding of medieval Indian history (1206-1707).
- Critically evaluate primary and secondary sources.
- Analyze complex historical processes and institutions.
- Develop effective communication and writing skills.

SEMESTER-IV

History of India: 1200 AD to 1526 AD (Socio-Cultural and Economic History)

HIS-DC-MJ-401

- Compare and contrast different regional perspectives on socio- political formations.
- Evaluate the impact of trade and urbanization on South Indian society.
- Assess the nature of Hindu-Muslim understanding during the Sultanate period.
- Analyze the significance of Vaishnavite movements in eastern India.
- Develop research skills using regional chronicles, bardic narratives, and travelogues.
- Demonstrate effective communication and presentation skills.

History of India: 1526 AD-1707 AD (Political History)

HIS-DC-MJ-402

- Understand how the Mughal Empire was established, expanded, and consolidated across the Indian subcontinent.
- Evaluate the Mughal administrative, military, and revenue systems, including Mansabdari and Jagirdari.
- Analyze the Mughals' approach to religious tolerance, syncretism, and policies under different rulers like Akbar and Aurangzeb.
- Assess the socio-economic structure, including trade, agrarian policies, social classes, and everyday life in Mughal society.
- Recognize and appreciate Mughal contributions to art, architecture (e.g., the Taj Mahal), literature, and cultural fusion.
- Identify and analyze internal and external factors leading to the decline and eventual fragmentation of the Mughal Empire.
- Assess the impact of significant figures, including emperors and courtiers, on the Mughal Empire's development and legacy.

History of India: 1526 AD to 1707 AD (Socio-Economic and Cultural History)

HIS-DC-MJ-403

- Evaluate the impact of the Mughal Empire on rural economy and society.
- Compare and contrast different trade networks and commercial systems.
- Assess the role of imperial karkhanas in textile production.
- Analyze the cultural developments in languages, literature, and arts.
- Critically evaluate historiographical approaches and methods.
- Develop research skills using primary and secondary sources.
- Demonstrate effective communication and presentation skills.

SEMESTER-V

History of India: 1707 AD to 1818 AD

HIS-DC-MJ-501

- Critically analyze the processes of British expansion in India, detailing the regional dynamics and key personalities involved.
- Evaluate the impact of colonial ideologies on Indian society and understand their role in shaping social, political, and economic policies.
- Assess the changes in India's rural economy and social structures under colonial rule, including shifts in agriculture, land revenue, and industry.
- Identify and interpret indigenous forms of resistance to British rule,
- Appreciating the diversity and significance of these movements in India's colonial history.

History of India: 1818 AD to 1885 AD

HIS-DC-MJ-502

- Critically assess the contributions of key reformers like Rammohan Roy, Derozio, and Vidyasagar to the Bengal Renaissance and Indian awakening.
- Evaluate the impact of socio-cultural and religious reform movements on Indian society, including changes in education, caste, and women's roles.
- Analyze various protest movements and uprisings such as the Indigo Revolt and the Pabna Peasant Uprisings, understanding their causes, dynamics, and outcomes.
- Interpret the significance of the Revolt of 1857 by exploring its causes, consequences, and historical controversies surrounding its legacy.

History of India: 1885 AD to 1947 AD

HIS-DC-MJ-503

- Critically analyze the roots and progression of Indian nationalism, recognizing the contributions of the Indian National Congress and the influence of the moderate and extremist factions.
- Evaluate the impact of key nationalist movements and leaders, particularly Gandhian strategies, revolutionary nationalism, and the mobilization of various social groups and classes.
- Assess the significance of constitutional reforms and political responses leading up to independence, understanding the role of key acts, commissions, and missions in shaping India's path to self-governance.
- Interpret the causes and consequences of communal politics and partition, examining the demand for Pakistan, responses across India, and the effects of British policies on the eventual division of the country.

India After Independence

HIS-DC-MJ-504

- Examine the formation and significance of India's Constitution
- Analyze the integration of princely states
- Discuss early economic reforms in land policy and the beginnings of centralized planning,
- Evaluate the influence of Jawaharlal Nehru's policies during his tenure as Prime Minister, focusing on his approach to nation-building and socio-economic development.
- Understand the establishment and functioning of parliamentary democracy
- Explore the challenges of sub-nationalism and identity politics within India,
- Assess the impact of economic decolonization
- Investigate regionalism and the assertion of backward classes.

SEMESTER-VI

Rise of the Modern West: Mid-15th- 17th Century

HIS-DC-MJ-601

- Understand the social roots of the Renaissance and explain how humanism shaped European intellectual and artistic life, cultural impact.
- Analyze the causes and effects of the Reformation and Counter-Reformation,
- Evaluate the significance of the Thirty Years' War across Europe, including its impact on emerging state systems.
- Examine the development of key European states (Spain, France, England, and Russia), identifying the political and cultural factors that influenced the establishment and evolution of their governance structures.

- Explore the motives and outcomes of early European colonial expansion, particularly focusing on the explorations of Portugal and Spain, and understand how these voyages reshaped global trade networks and shifted economic power from the Mediterranean to the Atlantic.
- Assess the commercial and price revolutions that arose from the shift in trade routes, understanding the economic transformations that led to the rise of capitalism and altered European economies.

Rise of the Modern West: 17th –Mid 18th Century

HIS-DC-MJ-602

- Analyze the crises in 17th-century Europe, understanding the economic, social, and political forces that reshaped European societies and contributed to transformative conflicts.
- Evaluate the causes, key issues, and intellectual currents of the English Revolution,.
- Understand the Scientific Revolution up to the 18th century,
- Examine the role of mercantilism in shaping the European economy in the 17th and 18th centuries, and discuss its impact on colonial expansion, trade, and the emergence of early capitalist practices.
- Discuss the political and economic factors leading to the American War of Independence and assess its global significance as well as its influence on European political ideas.
- Identify and compare European political patterns in the 18th century, particularly the establishment of parliamentary monarchies and variations of absolutism, understanding how these systems influenced governance and societal organization.
- Explore the causes and implications of the Industrial Revolution, engaging with debates on the transition from feudalism to capitalism and understanding its transformative impact on economic structures, labour, and society.

History of Europe: 1789 AD to 1870 AD

HIS-DC-MJ-603

- Understand the period of transition in Europe
- Analyze historical texts and sources critically.
- Develop well-supported arguments and interpretations.
- Design and conduct historical research projects.

History of Europe: 1871 AD to 1945 AD

HIS-DC-MJ-604

- Identify and explain major historical approaches to understand the background of the two World Wars
- Analyze historical texts and sources critically.

- Develop well-supported arguments and interpretations.
- Design and conduct historical research projects.

SEMESTER-VII

Contemporary World (1945-1990)

HIS-DC-MJ-701

- Identify and explain major historical approaches to Cold War
- Analyzing the significance of ideology in the Cold War politics
- Develop well-supported arguments and interpretations
- To have a proper understanding of the present-day world politics after the end of Cold War.

Historiography Part-I: Concepts, Methods and Tools

HIS-DC-MJ-702

- Critically evaluate historical sources and interpretations.
- Analyze causation and historicism in historical contexts.
- Compare and contrast different approaches to history.
- Identify biases and perspectives in historical accounts.

HIS-DC-MJ-703 State In India (Indus State-1947 AD)

HIS-DC-MJ-703

- Describe the evolution of state formation in India.
- Analyze the characteristics of various Indian states.
- Evaluate the impact of state formations on Indian society.
- Compare and contrast different state formations.
- Understand the colonial state's objectives and apparatus.

Environmental History of India

HIS-DC-MJ-704

- Analyze the historical relationship between humans and the environment in India.
- Evaluate the impact of colonialism on India's environment.
- Understand the significance of environmental movements in India.
- Critically assess contemporary environmental issues.
- Develop sustainable and environmentally conscious perspectives.

SEMESTER-VIII

Historiography Part-II: Concepts, Methods and Tools

HIS-DC-MJ-801

- Identify and explain major historical approaches and methodologies.
- Analyze historical texts and sources critically.
- Develop well-supported arguments and interpretations.
- Design and conduct historical research projects.

Disciplinary Minor Course (DSCM)

Semester-I

History of India: Pre-history to 6th Century BC

HIS-DC-MN-101

- Identify and describe early India's geographical features and cultural diversity.
- Analyze the evolution of prehistoric and proto-historic cultures.
- Understand the complexities of the Harappan Civilization and its decline.
- Explain the Aryan problem, political institutions, and social structure of early historic India.

Semester-II

History of India: 6th Century BC-Gupta Period

HIS-DC-MN-201

- Gain comprehensive understanding of ancient Indian history (600 BCE - 600 CE).
- Analyze primary and secondary sources critically.
- Evaluate the significance of key events, institutions, and cultural developments in ancient India.
- Develop effective communication and writing skills.

Semester-III

History of India: Post-Gupta to 1200 AD

HIS-DC-MN-301

- Demonstrate a comprehensive understanding of post- Gupta Indian history (600-1200 CE).
- Critically evaluate primary and secondary sources.
- Analyze complex historical processes and institutions.
- Develop effective communication and writing skills.

Semester-IV

History of India: 1200 AD to 1526 AD

HIS-DC-MN- 401

- Demonstrate a comprehensive understanding of medieval Indian history (1206-1707).
- Critically evaluate primary and secondary sources.
- Analyze complex historical processes and institutions.
- Develop effective communication and writing skills.

Semester-V

History of India: 1526 CE to 1707 AD

HIS-DC-MN- 501

- Understand how the Mughal Empire was established, expanded, and consolidated across the Indian subcontinent.
- Evaluate the Mughal administrative, military, and revenue systems, including Mansabdari and Jagirdari.
- Analyze the Mughals' approach to religious tolerance, syncretism, and policies under different rulers like Akbar and Aurangzeb.
- Assess the socio-economic structure, including trade, agrarian policies, social classes, and everyday life in Mughal society.
- Recognize and appreciate Mughal contributions to art, architecture (e.g., the Taj Mahal), literature, and cultural fusion.
- Identify and analyze internal and external factors leading to the decline and eventual fragmentation of the Mughal Empire.
- Assess the impact of significant figures, including emperors and courtiers, on the Mughal Empire's development and legacy.

Semester-VI

History of India: 1707AD to 1818 AD

HIS-DC-MN-601

- Understand the terminologies and different approaches of Indian history
- Learn about the Colonial techniques, methods, mechanism that helped to consolidate their power in India
- Study the notion of Orientalism, Utilitarianism, Evangelicalism and also understand the attitudes of Colonial Master's towards the Natives
- Realize how to introduce revenue system, decline handicraft industries, drain Indian wealth, increase rural indebtedness, cultivate cash crops and also assess the
- oppressive colonial rule on peasantry

Semester-VII

History of India: 1818 AD to 1885 AD

HIS-DC-MN-701

- Gain comprehensive understanding of Modern History (1818 AD to 1885 AD).
- Analyze primary and secondary sources critically.
- Evaluate the significance of key events, institutions, and cultural developments in Modern India.
- Develop effective communication and writing skills.

Semester-VIII

History of India: 1885 CE to 1947 CE

HIS-DC-MN-801

- Critically Examine Colonial and Anti-Colonial Narratives: Evaluate British colonial history and Indian resistance narratives, understanding both perspectives.
- Critically Examine Connect the roots of socio-political issues in modern India with historical events and trends from the freedom struggle era.
- Understand the Constitutional Changes and responsibilities of Swarajists and regional political parties, INA and Subhash Chandra Bose
- Explain the demand for Pakistan, British policies and Partition of India.

Multidisciplinary Course (MDC)

Semester-I

History of Early Bengal

HIS-MDC-101

- Identify and describe Bengal's geographical divisions and significance in early history.
- Understand political shifts under Maurya, Gupta, Pala, Sena dynasties, and independent rulers.
- Analyze social structure and divisions in ancient Bengali society.
- Examine the role of agriculture, trade, and commerce in shaping early Bengal's economy and culture.

Semester -II

HISTORY OF MEDIEVAL BENGAL (1206 A.D. – 1757 A.D.)

HIS-MDC-201

- a comprehensive understanding of medieval Bengal's history
- develop critical thinking and analytical skills in interpreting historical sources
- Recognize the significance of medieval Bengal in shaping the region's identity and culture.
- Understand Theories of Kingship and Regional State Formation
- Connect Regional Developments with Broader Historical Trends.

Semester-III

History of Bengal (c.1757-1947)

HIS-MDC-301

- Proper understand of the background of colonial control in Bengal
- Analyzing the protest movements from Bengal
- Develop well-supported arguments and interpretations of the period
- Finding the main causes of communal conflicts in Bengal.

Skill Enhancement Course (SEC)

SEMESTER-I

SEC-1 Indian Heritage and Tourism

To introduce students to the concept of heritage, focusing on:

- Students will gain a thorough understanding of tangible, intangible and natural heritage, its importance, and the factors that contribute to its preservation.
- Students will develop an awareness of how tourism impacts heritage sites, both positively (economic benefits) and negatively (conservation challenges).
- Students will acquire knowledge of effective heritage management strategies and practices for conserving cultural and historical sites.
- Students will learn to design, plan and promote heritage tourism initiatives that contribute to the sustainable development of historical sites and local communities.

SEMESTER-II

SEC-2: Archives and Museums

- Students will gain a clear understanding of the roles, functions, and significance of archives and museums in preserving historical memory and cultural heritage.
- Students will develop the ability to work with historical documents and archival materials, including handling, categorizing, and preserving them according to best practices.
- Students will acquire the ability to design and curate exhibitions, understand museological principles, and appreciate the practical aspects of museum work.

SEMESTER-III

SEC-3 Understanding Popular Culture of Bengal

- Students will gain a thorough knowledge of popular culture and movie.
- Students will develop an awareness of how popular culture should be preserved.
- Students will acquire knowledge of performing arts.
- Students will learn how to prepare masks, video recording of popular culture.